

Invitation

GSK Multi-Therapeutic Update

Tuesday, April 5, 2011

6:00 pm

LoPresti's

165 Jackson Street East

Hamilton, Ontario

905-528-0205

Speakers

Deb Coutts, RRT

COPD & Asthma Educator,

Coordinator Pulmonary Rehab Program,

Credit Valley Hospital

Anil Kapoor, MD, FRCSC

Associate Professor of Surgery (Urology),

McMaster University;

Program Director,

McMaster Urology Residency Program;

Director, Urologic Research Group,

McMaster Institute of Urology, St. Joseph's Healthcare

Dion Neame, MB, BCh, BSc, FRCPC, FAAP

Paediatrician, Joseph Brant Hospital;

Medical Advisor, Vaccines, GSK Canada

Learning Objectives

Inhaler Tips & Techniques

- Assess and apply a practical approach to management of respiratory patients;
- Consider strategies that can improve patient compliance in asthma and COPD.

Recent Advances in Cervical Cancer Prevention

- Explain the differences between the two HPV vaccine available;
- Evaluate potential patients to counsel on HPV vaccination and how they would benefit.

Effective Management of BPH Patients

- Recognize the clinical implications of BPH disease progression;
- Understand the roles of watchful waiting, alpha blockers, 5-alpha reductase inhibitors (5ARIs) and combination therapy in the management of LUTS.

Agenda

6:00 pm

Registration & Reception

6:30 pm

HDPHA: A.G.M

6:50 pm

*Presentation - Inhaler Tips & Techniques

Deb Coutts

7:20 pm

*Presentation - Recent Advances in

Cervical Cancer Prevention

Dr Dion Neame

7:50 pm

*Presentation - Effective Management of

BPH Patients - Dr Anil Kapoor

8:10 pm

Questions & Answers

8:20 pm

Evaluation & Close

Dinner will be provided

RSVP

Please confirm your attendance by

Wednesday, March 30 to:

Elise Taylor

☎ 1-800-461-7096, ext. 9368

✉ elise.c.taylor@gsk.com